

List each legal requirement that applies to your work: the Act, regulation or code section, what it requires, how you meet it, who owns it and when it was last reviewed. Use one register per jurisdiction, add rows as needed and review the register at least once a year and whenever your work changes.

Organization: _____ Jurisdiction: _____ Register owner: _____

#	Law and section	What it requires	Applies to (sites, roles, work)	How we comply (program, procedure, record)	Owner	Last reviewed	Next review	Up to date
1								☐
2								☐
3								☐
4								☐
5								☐
6								☐
7								☐
8								☐
9								☐
10								☐

Tip: start with the definitions, general duties and the parts of the regulations or code that match your hazards, such as first aid, WHMIS, fall protection, working alone and violence and harassment. Find every jurisdiction's legislation at calgarysafetyconsultants.ca/safety-guides/ohs-legislation/

General information, not legal advice. OHS requirements differ between provinces, territories and federally regulated workplaces and change over time, so confirm the current requirements that apply to your workplace.